I hereby certify that during the past calendar quarter WTVF, its network and/or its syndicator, as a standard practice, formatted and broadcast the children's programs which are listed below to assure that they would be within the statutory limits permitted for commercials and commercial matter in such programs, except that as to the particular program segments identified below there were overages to the extent indicated. Specifically:

1. Each hour of weekend children's programming contained no more than ten and one-half minutes (10:30) of commercials.

DATE: 9/1/07

* On Saturday, September 1st, due to a technical error, WTVF aired 1 minute and 9 seconds of a live CBS Sports update at 10 AM. This update included a 2 ½ second billboard for AT&T. After this mistake, WTVF quickly joined children's programming in progress. Procedures have been put in place to insure that this will not happen again.

During the above period, the CBS Television Network ("CBS"), a unit of CBS Corporation, disseminated to its owned and affiliated stations the following weekly programs originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years of age and under:

THE NEW ADVENTURES OF MADELINE
SABRINA: THE ANIMATED SERIES

All of these programs were disseminated for weekend broadcast by CBS affiliates and owned stations.

I hereby certify that the children's programming disseminated by CBS during the period July 1, 2007 through September 30, 2007, was formatted to contain no more than the maximum amount of commercial time permitted under the Communications Act, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §303a, and 47 C.F.R. §73.670(a)-(d). Specifically, I certify that, in the form and sequence in which the programming was disseminated by CBS to its owned and affiliated stations for broadcast:

- (1) Each hour of weekend children's programming (containing either one hour-long program or two consecutive half-hour programs) contained no more than ten and one-half minutes (10:30) of network commercials and was formatted to contain no commercials supplied by the local station;
- (2) When, due to preemptions, the network disseminated during the weekend a half-hour children's program which was not part of an hour's block of children's programming, that program contained no more than five minutes fifteen seconds (5:15) of network commercials and was formatted to contain no commercials supplied by the local station.
